

The background is a vibrant, stylized illustration of a resort. On the left is a multi-story building with a grid of windows. In the center is a swimming pool with a black lounge chair and a red and white striped umbrella. To the right are palm trees and a bright sun in a blue sky. In the foreground, a red convertible car is parked on a grey road. A large, light grey circle is centered over the building and pool area, containing the title text.
